

New England District Officiating Camp

In Partnership with Saint Anselm College

Saint Anselm College, Manchester, NH / June 30 - July 3, 2024

About the New England District Officiating Camp

The partnership between New England District Officials and Saint Anselm College provides officials with the New England District Officiating Camp and is designed to build on the official's fundamentals with rule knowledge, mechanics, judgment and game management. This camp will also give officials the opportunity to explore the various officiating routes they can take to advance to the higher levels of hockey. This camp will feature on-ice sessions, off-ice conditioning, classroom sessions and the ability to work games using the three- and four- official systems.

- Education: The utilization of classroom sessions will give officials the ability to learn more about the three- and four- official systems, build on their mechanics, positioning, judgment, and rule knowledge. Officials will also learn about the various paths they can take to advance their officiating careers within New England District, USA Hockey youth and junior programs and the NCAA.
- Experience: The New England District Officiating Camp will run in conjunction with a player camp that will consist of high school aged players where officials will receive feedback after their games. Officials will gain experience working the three- and four- official systems. With the help of experienced officiating coaches, officials will learn various fundamental and advanced techniques that will help them effectively manage the game of hockey. It will also help them to advance to the leagues that they aspire and work hard to be in.
